

Announcement

It is with sincere regret that the Honbu (headquarters) of International Karate Organization Kyokushinkaikan - founded by Sosai Masutatsu Oyama (Mas Oyama) - in Tokyo, Japan, makes the following announcement:

Cameron Frasier Quinn (4th dan) has been expelled as of July 23rd, 2012. All of Mr. Quinn's contractual agreement with IKO Kyokushinkaikan is rescinded as of July 23rd, 2012 also his privileges as Branch Chief of Brisbane, Queensland Australia.

Any classes, seminars, gradings or camps he promotes/ takes part in as Kyokushin Karate and Mas Oyama's Karate, are not authorized and are considered fraudulent legally as per the legitimate legal Intellectual Properties and Trade Marks held by Mas Oyama's original organization Honbu in Tokyo, Japan.

We regret this incident is required to be publicly announced; however, the original and current headquarters of Mas Oyama's Kyokushin Karate must take the appropriate steps to protect the name and integrity of Kyokushin Karate as the sole legal successor of Sosai Oyama.

Should any person or party be involved in the use of the name or logos of Mas Oyama, Kyokushin or IKO, and copyrighted materials please reconsider as the names and rights are reserved by law only to be used by the IKO Kyokushinkaikan – the original Honbu of Mas Oyama authorized list from this website. We will welcome people to work with the IKO Kyokushinkaikan in due course.
